Barolo, Barbaresco & More – Lockdown Wines by Monica Lerner

7

"This is a terrific offering from G.D Vajra, with innovative and clever wines ranging from the classic Barolo Bricco delle Viole to the informal Langhe Nebbiolo Claré J.C. With a catchy rap song singing its praises (google "Il Primo - Nebbiolo ft. LFT and Toro"), G.D. Vajra is one of the most exciting estates to watch today. Congratulations on these gorgeous wines."

NOVEMBER 2019

The New York Times

36 Hours in Barolo, Italy, by Ingrid K. Williams

"Whatever your depth of knowledge, one of the warmest welcomes in the area awaits at G.D. Vajra, a family-run winery in the hills above Barolo town. Tours of the cantina are led by Milena, the engaging matriarch, and her amiable daughter, Francesca, who intersperse explanations of terroir and winemaking techniques with family lore. Visits conclude with a tasting of Vajra's celebrated wines, from a silky nebbiolo and balanced Barbera d'Alba to an elegant single-vineyard Barolo with hints of violet."

JUNE/JULY 2015

The Somm Journal

Steven Spurrier – The Great Wines of Piedmont,

"The morning visit was to G.D. Vajra just outside Barolo, one of my very favourite producers, established in 1972 by Aldo Vajra. [...] Luigi Baudana vineyards combine robustness and elegance, while the single vineyard Bricco delle Viole is, for me, the Lafite of Barolo."

2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence

"There's plenty to like in these new releases from the Vajra family. Starting with the 2020 Barolos, the wines are gracious and finely sketched, with the personality of each wine clearly defined. The Bricco delle Viole is especially sublime and well worth seeking out. As always, the Barolos offer a compelling mix of classicism and contemporary finesse. The entry-level offerings are a bit mixed this year, largely a reflection of the challenging 2022 harvest. Readers will find several new wines made from nearly extinct varieties that show plenty of intrigue and that are sure to enrich this range going forward."

2019 Barolo: Back on Track

"The 2019 Barolos at Vajra are seriously impressive. These wines need a ton of air to show all they have to offer, something readers who want to taste them at this stage should bear in mind. The classicism of these wines is quite appealing for the future."

2017 Barolo: Here We Go Again...

"The Vajra family produced a bevy of stellar wines from both their estates, G.D. Vajra in Barolo and Baudana in Serralunga. The 2017s are deep, fleshy and impeccably balanced. All of the 2017s were fermented in steel, where they spent 50-60 days on the skins, including submerged cap maceration at the end."

•

FEBRUARY 2020

2016 Barolo: Right Place, Right Time

"The Vajra family has turned out a magnificent set of Barolos at both their own winery and at Baudana. Harvest wrapped up on October 22, very late by present day standards, and ideal for wines that emphasize purity of fruit. As always, the Barolos are all about finesse and nuance, very much like an artists' pencil etchings, where all the lines are totally delineated. At Baudana, the wines are naturally more muscular, but that is Serralunga, after all. Most importantly, the Vajras have developed a personal style that melds classicism with a level of approachability that makes these wines so alluring, even upon release."

•

FEBRUARY 2018

2014 Barolo: Surprise, Surprise...

"It's hard to believe, but the Vajra family keeps raising the bar. The 2014 Barolos are strong across the board, especially within the context of the vintage, but the flagship Bricco delle Viole is a truly special, moving wine."

BAROLO

BRICCO DELLE VIOLE

- 98 2020 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
A ripe ruby color, the 2020 Barolo Bricco Delle Viole is incredible on the nose. [...] Medium to full-bodied, with ripe tannins, a balanced, compact nature, and a velvety texture, it is nicely concentrated, yet with a weightless feel. This is one of the most complete wines I've tasted from Vjara to date. It has depth, but with a defined feel, and is long on the palate, with an exceptional finish.
- 97 2020 - Othmar Kiem and Simon Staffler, Falstaff Wein Guide Italien 2025, Oct 2024
- 96 2020 - Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, July 2024
Elegant and graceful, with a silky texture, this red evokes strawberry, cherry, rose, mint and mineral aromas and flavors. Firmly structured and lively, with balance and a resonant, energetic finish. Shows superb harmony, finesse and length.
- 96 2020 - Jeff Porter, WineEnthusiast, July 2024
[...] Notes of leather, truffle, and forest floor add depth that keep flowing from the glass. The palate is a panoply of cherries in all their glory [...]. Accompanied by sweet tea with cola and sassafras that lead to supple tannins that provide needed structure without overpowering the wine. Lifted acidity keeps each sip pure and fresh, making the bottle empty too soon.
- 95 2020 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024
The G.D. Vajra 2020 Barolo Bricco delle Viole is a very pretty wine with brightness and delicate aromas that remain etched and defined. You get dried violet or lilac, tart cherry, cranberry, lavender essence, rosemary and other perfumed Mediterranean nuances. Bricco delle Viole finishes dry, and the tannins are on the powdery side, giving the wine medium weight and a lean mid-palate.
- 95 2020 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2023
Fragrant and refined, the G.D. Vajra 2020 Bricco delle Viole has heady aromas of wild berry, fragrant purple flower and camphor. It's polished and sav with great red cherry and raspberry fruit flavors accented by spicy notes of ground clove and white pepper. Tightly knit, fine-grained tannins offer sea support.
- 96 2020 - James Suckling, Jan 2024
Rose petals, racy plums and cherries with subtle white pepper spices and mineral. The tight, full-bodied palate is grasped by fine, minerally textured tannins. Powerful, ample and vertical in the middle before a lengthy, mineral finish.
- 96 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024
[...] The 2020 is gracious and elegant, but its youthful Nebbiolo tannins will require some time to soften. The 2020 is another wine that captures my keen interests with its sublime balance. I would be thrilled to own it.
- 95 2020 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, May 2024
From one of the greatest of Barolo crus. Importer: CellarHand. Dried flowers, chamomile, almond, cherry and orange peel, and quite spicy and exotic with it. It offers red fruit, blood orange, a smattering of dried herbs, a rusty and stony feel to tannin, some of that classic BdV 'mineral' inflection [...]
- 17.5 2020 - Jancis Robinson, Barolo 2019, Nov 2023

BAROLO RAVERA

97 2020 - Jeff Porter, WineEnthusiast, July 2024

The Ravera cru, one of the estate's prized holdings, is known for its calcareous soil and old vines that contribute to the wine's depth and ageability. This Barolo showcases crushed raspberries and red currants intertwined with wild thyme and fresh laurel. Subtle notes of cinchona bark, whole cinnamon, and fresh porcini add complexity. On the palate, warmed mixed berry jam is dusted with crushed cloves, pepper, and earthy hints of truffle and underbrush. Fine and elegant tannins provide structure, while the well-balanced warmth envelops the senses like a comforting hug.

96 2020 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024

The G.D. Vajra 2020 Barolo Ravera reveals wild forest berry, cherry, licorice root and sweet summer fruit. The effect is focused or chiseled thanks to animating acidity and pinpoint fruit flavors. Located in the village of Novello, Ravera benefits from open panoramas and cooler temperatures from the mountains. These factors make this cru one of the most promising in this era of climate change. This is a Barolo for the purists.

96 2020 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024

Bright ruby-colored, the 2020 Barolo Ravera is fresh and fruity with notes of cherry candies, lilacs, darker spice (almost anise, but sweeter), and sweet sage, but it's all well-integrated. Medium-bodied on the palate[...]

95 2020 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2023

The 2020 Ravera from G.D. Vajra is taut and savory, featuring aromas and flavors of juicy wild strawberry, cherry, forest floor, blood orange and star a salty note signals the close while close-grained tannins grip the close. Give this a few more years to fully develop.

95 2020 - James Suckling, Jan 2024

Blood orange, savory plum and clove characters with a touch of haw fruit and white pepper. Close-knit, chalky tannins on the palate with a structured full body and a zesty, tense finish. Long, complex, austere and expansive.

94+ 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024

The 2020 Barolo Ravera is a gorgeous, aromatically exotic wine that is going to need time to be at its best. Orange peel, spice, menthol and kirsch all lift from the glass, conveying a good deal of ethereal Nebbiolo beauty before the tannins kick in. There's gorgeous weight and substance here, in the mid-weight style of the year. More than anything else, I admire the balance.

94 2020 - Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, July 2024

A dense, compact version, with cherry and raspberry fruit accented by hay, thyme, iron and tobacco notes. Linear and lively, with mouthpuckering tannins framing the finish [...].

94 2020 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, May 2024

Cherry, plum, menthol and mint, kind of earthy too. It's a bold wine, a lot of earth and rugged tannic impact, something of bold offering, black tea and orange peel, chalky tannin grip [...]

94 2020 - Othmar Kiem and Simon Staffler, Falstaff Tasting Barolo [...] 2024, Oct 2024

17++ 2020 - Jancis Robinson, Barolo 2019, Nov 2023

Three different picks at different altitudes. A site towards Monforte that is relied upon to yield the power of Monforte and the elegance of Barolo. Clay and silt. To be released mid 2024. Powerful and muscular. Lots of tannin.

BAROLO COSTE DI ROSE

95

96 2020 - Bruce Sandersor, Wine Spectator, July 2024

A beam of fresh cherry and strawberry permeates this graceful red, driven by a vibrant structure. Flashes of sun-kissed hay, iron and mint add depth as this cruises to a lingering conclusion. Very harmonious, with a chalky sensation on the long, complex aftertaste.

96 x 2020 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2023

The 2020 Coste delle Rose is a stunner, starting with its heady aromas of dog rose, lavender, juniper and eucalyptus. Combining finesse and density, the polished palate is delicious, delivering juicy red cherry, strawberry compote, blood orange, grilled sage and star anise alongside tightly knit, velvet [...].

96 2020 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024

Aged for 28 months in cask, the bright ruby 2020 Barolo Coste Di Rose was a little more reserved at this tasting. It reveals a hint of blood orange citrus along with its notes of cola, ripe strawberries, and raspberries. Medium-bodied, it has finely tensioned tannins and a clean, mouthwatering finish.

96 2020 - IWSC Wine, May 2024

96 2020 - Othmar Kiem and Simon Staffler, Falstaff Tasting Barolo [...] 2024, Oct 2024

94 2020 - Jeff Porter, WineEnthusiast, July 2024

A Barolo of remarkable elegance and complexity. Lifted aromas of mixed wild berries, candied rose petals, cinnamon, and whole clove, are accompanied by warm, earthy notes. Tart cherries and cranberries dominate the palate, with woody undertones and chewy tannins that provide heft without overpowering. Savory and medicinal herbs linger on the finish, making this a captivating expression of this renowned cru.

94 2020 - James Suckling, Jan 2024

White pepper, dried roses, berries and mineral on the nose. Really elegant and chalky on the palate [...] and a linear finish. Pure and driven.

93 2020 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, May 2024

So often the most charming wine in the Vajra portfolio. Importer: CellarHand. It's red fruited, floral, spicy, mint and liquorice-laced. Cherry and raspberry, supple powdery tannin grip, gently ferrous, quite spicy and clove perfumed, not quite sweet, but quite juicy all the same. Has some sandstone grip on the finish, but there's perfume and charm laid on thick. Lovely wine.

17 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024

The 2020 Barolo Coste di Rose is an attractive, mid-weight wine. Black cherry, lavender, spice, menthol and licorice are nicely woven together. The Coste di Rose [...] offers tons of sheer appeal, in a sensual, open-knit style that can be enjoyed with minimal cellaring.

96 2020 - Jancis Robinson, Barolo 2019, Nov 2023

Sandy site between Cannubi and Bussia at 360–380 m. Vajra's lowest. It's a historic vineyard from Aldo's parents that is fenced to stop grape pilfering. To be released mid 2024. Truly floral aroma. Very fruity, expressive and flattering. [...] Lots of energy. Relatively light.

BAROLO ALBE

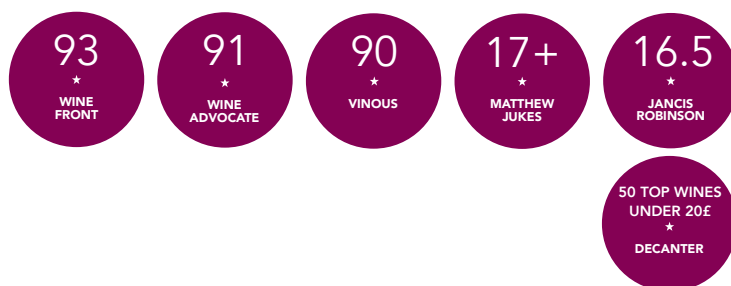

- 94 2020 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024
You can't beat this value. The G.D. Vajra 2020 Barolo Albe is buttoned up with fresh primary fruit, and the wine does not have that hint of over-ripeness that is found across this vintage. The fruit is dark and savory, and there is a big mineral component to match, but the bouquet is nicely redolent of dark currant, plum, granite and a raspy dry note that brings crushed shale to mind. The tannins are quite impactful, and they give this wine extra runway for moderate bottle aging.
- 94 2020 - Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, July 2024
This effusive red displays cherry, raspberry, rose, iron, juniper and hay flavors, underscored by vibrant acidity. Harmonious and supple in texture, with a long aftertaste of red fruit, mineral and floral elements.
- 93 2020 - Jeff Porter, WineEnthusiast, July 2024
The nose is a harmonious blend of red fruits, featuring warmed cherries macerated in sweet and savory spices of cinnamon and clove. Dried raspberries and red currant add depth, while a distinct dried leaf and floral component entices. Vibrant cherry, cranberry, and strawberry stand tall on the palate, with thyme and bay leaf adding subtle herbaceous undertones that balance the flavors. Mouthwatering acidity keeps the wine lively, and approachable tannins allow you to enjoy this wine now and give you the tools to pair with a variety of cuisines.
- 93 2020 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
A ripe ruby hue, the 2020 Barolo Albe offers a beautiful bouquet of raspberries, fresh flowers, and delicate spice. Medium-bodied, it has a lot of elegance, with ripe and supple tannins and a bit of iron-rich earth.
- 93 2020 - Othmar Kiem and Simon Staffler, Falstaff Tasting Barolo [...] 2024, Oct 2024
[...]
- 92 2020 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinkeefe.com, Feb 2023
The friendly 2020 Barolo Albe is all about sheer drinking pleasure. Glossy and savory, it doles out ripe red cherry, blood orange, pink peppercorn and tea accompanied by lithe tannins. It's ready but will also offer several years of enjoyment.
- 93 2020 - James Suckling, Jan 2024
This is a bright and lively Barolo showing sliced oranges, raspberries, crushed stones and rose petals on the nose. [...] sharp acidity and tight tannins. Lots of energy.
- 93 2020 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, May 2024
Red fruits, strawberry springs to mind, sage and mint, almond friand. It's a bright wine, all red fruits with a smattering of dried herb, orange rind, kind of succulent too, with a light crushed rock feel to tannin [...] I like it. It has vigour and personality.
- 2020 - Silver Medal, Sommelier Wine Awards, May 2024
- 16 2020 - Jancis Robinson, Barolo 2019, Nov 2023
Described as 'the first post-modernist Barolo'. Great to drink young yet ageworthy, too. Blend of three high vineyards [...] Intense, mineral and racy. Edgy and quite modern [...].

DOLCETTO D'ALBA COSTE&FOSSATI

- 90 2022 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024
The 2022 Dolcetto d'Alba Coste & Fossati is a powerful, deep wine. Black cherry, plum, leather, grilled herbs, gravel, lavender and spice lend notable complexity. Imposing tannins and rich fruit give this a very serious feel. The 2022 is a wine for the dinner table.
- 90 2022 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
A youthful ruby/magenta color, the 2022 Dolcetto D'Alba Coste & Fossati brings forward a ripe nose with a savory umami nature, notes of candied purple flowers, red plums, and red berries, and a hint of mocha. Medium-bodied and delicately rounded, this Dolcetto shows off a more Barbera-like sense and is approachable and even throughout the vintage. [...]
- 17 2022 - Jancis Robinson, Dec 2023
Vivid fruit sheathed in firm, muscular, sandy tannins. Dust and rosehips. Sour cherry. Vibrant fruit with a delicate forest-floor savoury outline and a breathy whisper of florals. The finish draws down tight and then circles back into the brightness of its fruit. Great sapidity! Appetising and full of life, and even better after the bottle was left (deliberately) open for 24 hours.
- 92 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
This wine is all about fun and good cheer. "Every day that you drink Dolcetto is a good day," says Isidoro Vaira. The organic 2022 Dolcetto d'Alba Coste & Fossati reveals rich, dark fruit with a pronounced sweet side. There is soft cherry, blackberry and crème de cassis. The wine is quite plump and juicy in character, setting it up for pairing with wood-oven pizza.
- 92 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
The organic G.D. Vajra 2021 Dolcetto d'Alba Coste & Fossati offers raw, punchy flavors with big intensity and loads of soft dark fruit. There is a wild factor to this wine that you always get with the best expressions of this much-beloved grape. A warming climate has actually helped Dolcetto, as this variety does very well during the warm summer season. An older demographic appreciated Dolcetto made without oak, but styles changed and wood barrels were added to the winemaking regime. In recent years, the trend has favored a return to the original Dolcetto, and wood use is today considered too invasive. This is a full and generous wine with dark fruit and hints of natural spiciness on the close.
- 90 2021 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont Within Reach, Dec 2022
The 2021 Dolcetto d'Alba Coste & Fossati is laced with dark cherry, plum, spice, leather and tobacco. Long ferments, with submerged cap and aging in cask yields a Dolcetto of uncommon complexity and nuance. The Coste & Fossati is usually on the richer side, but the 2021 is decidedly restrained.
- 92 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Jan 2022
- 92 2019 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Part 1, Sep 2021

DOLCETTO D'ALBA

- 91 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024
Here's a pretty straightforward Dolcetto that starts off with lots of bold dark fruit but that also has the benefit of fine chalk and hints of flinty minerality. The 2022 Dolcetto d'Alba offers a little more complexity and aspires to more than just monotone blackberry. You get tart cherry and a hint of lilac or another blue flower. [...]
- 91 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Aug 2022
Made only in stainless steel, the 2021 Dolcetto d'Alba shows a purplish color with inky concentration. The bouquet is simple and direct with loads of sweet candied cherry, crème de cassis and bitter almond. This is another terrific take on one of Piedmont's most versatile grapes.
- 90 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Jan 2022
The 2020 Dolcetto d'Alba is absolutely gorgeous. Bright red berry fruit, spice and floral accents all grace this energetic, vibrant, mid-weight Dolcetto. The Vajra Dolcetto is done entirely in steel. It is as classic as it gets. There's lovely freshness here.
- 93 2018 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, May 2020
Blue and purple fruit, spice and flowers, some liquorice. It's medium-bodied, stony feel and distinctly 'mineral' acidity, tannin is slightly raw and sticky, but it's still pretty much a baby, and it finishes firm and long, shining with some red fruit as it goes. Such crunch and energy here. It's a very appealing wine.
- 90 2018 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont: Beyond the usual suspects, Mar 2020
The 2018 Dolcetto d'Alba is a super-classic wine loaded with varietal flavors to match its mid-weight structure. Soaring aromatics and plush red and purplish berry fruit come through loud and clear in this refreshing, supremely delicious Dolcetto from the Vajra family. This is such a gorgeous wine.
- 16.5 2017 - Richard Hemming MW, Jancis Robinson, Another piece of Piemonte, Jul 2018
Leathery and tart on the nose with lots of tannic fuzz on the palate. Very punchy for Dolcetto, even considering its youth. Lots of chew on the finish. Substantial and aromatic.

BARBERA D'ALBA SUPERIORE

94 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Apr 2024

Offering a level of aromatic clarity and elegance that is not always easy for this grape, the G.D. Vajra 2022 Barbera d’Alba Superiore Viola delle Viole has beautiful aromas of earthy iris, gentle oak spice, toasted allspice and a very ripe or soft quality of fruit. It all balances out smoothly to the senses. The tannins are tucked softly within that texture to good effect, giving support but no harshness. This is a well-made Superiore with both intensity and balance.

17 2021 - Jancis Robinson, Dec 2023

This is so alive and glorious that I wanted to throw my head back and laugh with the sheer pleasure of it. The fruit is pulsing with purity, dripping with dark, shining, deep indigo and gentian ‘blues’. Wild blackberry, violet, balsamic notes, black pepper etched into every silky soft fold of fruit and tannin. Incredible tannins – long and long and long, the texture of cashmere and cork bark. The finish is succulent, like a long kiss. It carries its alcohol with graceful ease. Real beauty here.

93 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023

I’m told that this is probably the last vintage in which the 2021 Barbera d’Alba Superiore Viola delle Viole will carry the name Viola delle Viole. In yet another unfortunate nod to climate change, Barbera vines suffer from the floral disease Flavescence dorée that causes the plants to shut down and the fruit to remain unripened. [...] As a result, Barbera vines in Bricco delle Viole (one of two sites present in this blend, the other being Bricco Bertone outside the Barolo area) were taken out. Barbera tends to produce wines with high alcohol, but the Vajra team prefers to reach optimal fruit maturity and is less concerned about alcohol. The grape always has high acidity, but that is “a problem that is going away on its own,” says Isidoro Vaira. Bricco delle Viole gives the wine its floral aromas and Bricco Bertone adds a sweet almond-like flavor. There is a seven- to eight-day harvest difference between the two sites. This wine ages in large oak casks for 16 months.

93+ 2021 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont Within Reach, Dec 2022

Just bottled, the 2021 Barbera d’Alba Superiore is fabulous. Rich and inky, with tremendous depth, the 2021 is so vibrant in the glass. Red/purplish fruit, lavender, sweet spice and mocha are all dialed up, with a kiss of French oak that adds raciness.

93+ 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Jan 2022

The 2020 Barbera d’Alba Superiore emerges from Bricco Bertone in Sinio, just outside the Barolo zone. Black cherry, gravel, spice, menthol and leather confer gravitas to this very young Barbera. The Superiore has a track record of aging exquisitely. I wouldn’t dream of touching a bottle anytime soon. This is one of the most under the radar wines in all of Piedmont.

BARBERA D'ALBA

- 92 2023 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
A deep purple/magenta color, the 2023 Barbera D'Alba offers loads of fresh lavender, fresh blackberries, red plum, and delicate, fresh herbs, and spice. (I love the nose on this vintage.) On the palate, the wine has a fantastically refreshing feel and a clean finish, with a lot of charm and versatility.
- 90 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
The G.D. Vajra 2022 Barbera d'Alba is a nicely concentrated effort with dark cherry fruit, blackberry and cinnamon-like sensations from the grape skins. With that extra density comes extra fruit weight. The wine does carry muscle for sure, but the results are firm and tight.
- 91 2021 - Wine&Spirits, Top 100 Best Buys of 2022, Oct 2022
Scents of lavender and violet lead into flavors of fleshy plum and blackberry that are infused with lively acidity and layered with notes of soft spice. Its taut plum-skin tannins frame the flavors and make this an excellent partner for burgers or just about anything off the grill. - S.J.
- 91 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Aug 2022
Here's another food-friendly wine from beautiful Piedmont. The 2021 Barbera d'Alba shows a dark purplish hue and saturated fruit flavors of dried blackberry and black cherry. There are hints of crushed mineral or oyster shell as well. The wine's medium thickness would work across a breaded veal steak. Fruit is sourced across various sites with different soil types.
- 90 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Jan 2022
Vajra's 2020 Barbera d'Alba is juicy, vibrant and absolutely delicious. Racy red/purplish berry fruit, spice, rose petal and mint are all kicked up in a tasty, impeccable Barbera that delivers the goods, big time.
- 90 2018 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Part 1, Sep 2021
The 2018 Barbera d'Alba is soft, juicy and uncomplicated, in other words, everything a value-priced Barbera should be. Sweet red cherry, plum, mocha, spice and licorice are front and center in this gorgeous, alluring Barbera from the Vajra family.
- 90 2017 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont: Beyond the usual suspects, Mar 2020
The 2017 Barbera d'Alba is a joyous wine that is sure to put a smile on readers' faces. Pliant, supple and full of character, the 2017 offers superb density and tons of pure deliciousness. Sweet dark cherry, plum, mocha and sweet spice are pushed forward in this engaging, arrestingly beautiful Barbera. Best of all, the 2017 is a superb value.
- 92 2016 - Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator
This is round and juicy, its cherry and blackberry fruit melding seamlessly with the bracing acidity. Flashes of iron and hot stone add depth as this stretches out, ending on a peppery accent.

LANGHE NEBBIOLO

- 92 2022 - Kerin O’Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2024
Camphor, rose and wild berry mix with aromas of dark spice on the lovely and fragrant 2022 Langhe Nebbiolo from G.D. Vajra. Fresh and savory, the polished palate delivers juicy strawberry, nutmeg and star anise accompanied by lithe tannins.
- 92 2022 - Othmar Kiem, Simon Staffler, Nebbiolo Trophy Italia 2024, Falstaff, April 2024
Brilliant ruby red. Some mint, watermelon and orange on the nose, fine raspberry notes after a little time. Great juiciness and clear fruit on the palate, vibrant, hearty, with fine persistence.
- 91 2022 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
A deeper shade of ruby although fully transparent, the 2022 Langhe Nebbiolo reveals a hint of blue fruit followed by more sapidity and flowers coming through in its floral and fruit notes, including wild mixed berries. These 2022s are a touch more grounded in nature in this vintage, with more grip and gravitas as well as more glycerol depth, but this wine is still fresh, with ripe tannins and notes of black tea. There shouldn’t be any rush to drink this now, since it’s going to develop some real character over the next several years.
- 90 2022 - Stephanie Johnson, Wine&Spirits, Mar 2024
This wine’s cherry and red-plum flavors are exuberantly youthful, buoyed by racy acidity and tinged with herbal accents. Give those bold flavors six months to flesh out and integrate.
- 91 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024
The G.D. Vajra 2022 Langhe Nebbiolo has so much bright freshness and primary intensity. This is a lovely entry-level wine and one that I warmly recommend to lovers of Nebbiolo who are also conscious of price. The wine sings from the glass with violet, sour cherry, raspberry, bitter almond and rose hip. There is a very ruby-colored, almost grenadine-like quality as well. I could see this pairing with a fatty food like a classic pasta carbonara. I’m ready for a second glass.
- 92 2022 - Othmar Kiem and Simon Staffler, Falstaff Nebbiolo Trophy, Apr 2024
Glänzendes Rubinrot. In der Nase etwas Minze, Wassermelone und Orange, nach etwas Zeit feine Himbeernoten. Am Gaumen mit toller Saftigkeit und klarer Frucht, schwingend, herzhaft, mit feinem Nachdruck.
- 90 2021 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont Within Reach, Dec 2022
The 2021 Langhe Nebbiolo is another terrific entry-level wine from Vajra. Delicate and gracious in the glass, the Langhe Nebbiolo captures the essence of the house style. Bright red-toned fruit, orange peel, mint, crushed rocks and white pepper lend brightness to this elegant, wonderfully translucent Langhe Nebbiolo.
- 94 2021 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, Jul 2022

LANGHE FREISA KYÈ

- 93 2021 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2024
Made with organically farmed Freisa, a rare native grape that's related genetically to Nebbiolo, the 2021 G.D. Vajra is utterly delicious. Bold and boasting a wildness that's hard to describe, it has aromas and flavors of juicy red berry, rose hip, wild herb, licorice and layers of spice including clove, nutmeg and white pepper. Bright acidity and tightly woven tannins provide support.
- 92 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Apr 2024
The G.D. Vajra 2021 Langhe Freisa Kyè has a delicate bouquet with intertwined berry and floral elements that could recall Japanese cherry blossom or even a Sicilian almond blossom. Beyond that, the wine offers an interlude of fresh blue fruits with elderberry and juniper. It shows terrific freshness and more tart flavors to close.
- 93 2020 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More, Aug 2023
The organic G.D. Vajra 2020 Langhe Freisa Kyè is like a postcard from Piedmont; it offers an authentic window onto the region and is a wine that most certainly could not be repeated in any other part of the world. Freisa is a tart, naturally spicy grape that displays dustings of powdery cinnamon and crushed white pepper. The grape is initially shy, and winemaking has it see two years in oak casks to help it integrate and flesh out. However, Freisa is another local variety that does well in an ever-warming climate. For example, this hot-vintage expression has an extra layer of complexity with dried herb or mint at the back.
- 94+ 2019 - Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, Jul 2022
Dark cherry, almond, new leather, crushed rock, pulls to some brighter raspberry and strawberry flavours, a little spice too. Long and stuffed with earth and black tea-like things. Super. Well, it is for me, because I love this grape variety.
- 94+ 2019 - Ian D'Agata, Terroir Sense: Ten Great Italian Wines You Should Not Miss out on in 2024, Jul 2024
[...] Fully saturated ruby colour. Complex, deep aromas of red cherry, blackberry, blueberry, cedar and violet are pure and precise. Then less dark in the mouth, with slightly more red fruit-dominated flavours, coupled with sweet spices, orange peel and cinnamon: this actually hints at Nebbiolo too, perhaps not surprisingly given that Freisa and Nebbiolo are each other's closest relatives. Long, textured but wonderfully suave, this showcases youthfully chewy but noble tannins, a ton of ripe red fruit and a hints at noteworthy aging potential and further improvement (hence the '+' on my score). LANGHE NEBBIOLO CLARÉ J.C.

- 91 2023 - Jeb Dunnuck: New Releases from Barolo and Barbaresco, May 2024
Bottled in January, the medium ruby 2023 Langhe Nebbiolo Clare J.C. is fresh and floral, with bright notes of distilled raspberries and a light white pepper spice. [...] On the palate, it offers poppy, fresh, ripe fruit, and although there's a little bit of warmth, the wine is clean and retains lovely freshness and sweetness, with light spice and floral notes on the finish.
- 92 2023 - Othmar Kiem, Simon Staffler, Falstaff Nebbiolo Trophy, Apr 2024
Bright cherry red, lively. Fresh raspberries, rosehips and beet on the nose, fine vegetal notes, bitter almond. Deliberate, light mousse on the palate, lively, with hearty fruit and an uncomplicated finish, best enjoyed slightly chilled, perfect for mild spring evenings.
- 93 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
This is one of my favorite go-to wines for informal nights with family and friends. The G.D. Vajra 2022 Langhe Nebbiolo Claré J.C. opens to a lean appearance with bright ruby highlights. It remains true to the grape, in simple or almost transparent terms, with fresh berry fruit, cassis, blue flower and iris. I love the punchy, electric quality of this wine and its streamlined approach. You'll love it too (and love the low shelf price).
- 93 2022 - Eric Guido, Vinous, A Kaleidoscope of Colors: New Rosé Releases, May 2023
A profoundly complex blend of crushed blackberries, violets, spice orange peels and sage makes the 2022 Nebbiolo Claré J.C. a total knockout on the nose. Silky and enveloping with a pretty inner sweetness up front, this impresses further as a wave of wild berry fruit and exotic spice slowly saturates the palate. The 2022 finishes lightly structured yet full of mouth-watering tension. Licorice and purple-toned inner florals gradually fade. Its deep red color and tremendous depth make it hard to classify the Claré J.C. as a Rosé. That said, its drinkability factor is off the charts.
- 93 2022 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2023
Made with the firm's youngest Nebbiolo vines and bottled right after fermentation, this youthful, fragrant red is an absolute charmer. Fermented with 20% whole clusters, it's loaded with aromas and flavors of succulent cherry, strawberry and savory spice notes including white pepper. It's crisp, with a light hint of fizz that lends even more energy. Slightly chilled, it will make for a great summer red or an aperitivo.

PIEMONTE BARBERA FREISA

- 92 2022 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024
The 2022 Piemonte Barbera Freisa is another new wine from Vajra. Rich, deep and super-expressive, the 2022 exudes tons of character. Dark-toned fruit, spice, leather, tobacco and lavender all open effortlessly in the glass. This hearty, potent red has a ton to offer.
- 92 2021 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
In the bottle with the light blue label, this is a blend of 70% Barbera and 30% Freisa. This is another terrific value wine from G.D. Vajra. The 2021 Piemonte Barbera Freisa reveals floral tones, crushed rose, wild fruit, spice and white pepper. This is the kind of super popular wine that sells out before I can write my review. [...]
- 92 2020 - Monica Lerner, The Wine Advocate, Aug 2022
Packaged with a fun and contemporary blue label, the G.D. Vajra 2020 Piemonte Barbera Freisa is a co-fermented expression of these two very special indigenous grapes. This is the second vintage that this charming red wine was made. It brings tons of joy and conviviality, and although the Barbera feels like the bigger force in this hot vintage, the Freisa adds a spicy element with crushed white pepper and black rose. The punchy mouthfeel is easy and simple with no bitterness. This is a terrific value.

LANGHE RIESLING PÉTRACINE

- 92 2022 - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2024
From the pioneer of Riesling in Piedmont, the perfumed G.D. Vajra Pétracine has aromas of white spring flower, yellow stone fruit and citrus notes. M grapes cultivated in the Fossati cru in Barolo in a plot with gravel soil, and from a vineyard in Bricco Bertone in Sinio, it's linear, elegant and savory, flavors peach, apricot and orange zest before closing on a saline note. Tangy acidity lifts the finish.
- 90 2022 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, 2020 Barolo: Selective Excellence, Jan 2024
The 2022 Riesling Pétracine is a beautiful white that marries varietal notes with the natural richness of the year. Sweet jasmine, tangerine peel, ginger, passionfruit and lemon confit lend exotic beauty to Vajra's Riesling in 2022. I imagine time in bottle will bring out more of the textural oiliness that is in the background at present.
- 91 2022 - Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate, Italy, Piedmont: Barolo, Barbaresco & More Aug 2023
The organic G.D. Vajra 2022 Langhe Riesling Pétracine (the name is hard to read against the grapevine design that surrounds the lettering on the front label) is very direct and bright with a sharp citrusy quality that pops out thanks to crushed stone and tropical fruits. This glossy, smooth-sailing wine is a lot of fun to drink (especially young).
- 90 2021 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Piedmont Within Reach, Dec 2022
The 2021 Riesling Pétracine is soft, open-knit and quite tasty, with pretty tropical accents that play off more varietal orchard fruit, mint and floral notes. Drink this refreshing, elegant white over the next handful of years.
- 92 2020 - Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Everyday Piedmont, Jan 2022
The 2020 Riesling Pétracine is fresh, vibrant and full of energy. Orchard fruit, mint, lime, crushed rocks and white flowers are all very nicely delineated. Weightless and bright, the Riesling feels especially taut in 2020. It's a style that is hugely appealing.
- 90 2020 - Monica Lerner, The Wine Advocate, Jun 2021
Crystalline and luminous, both in appearance and personality, the G.D. Vajra 2020 Langhe Riesling Pétracine opens to light tones of honey, orchard fruit and soft tropical tones. At this young stage, the wine expresses its primary fruit best, although we can expect the bouquet to take all those fascinating aromatic twists and turns that only this grape can deliver. Riesling cultivated in Piedmont is a niche market for sure, but there are ample signs of its growing popularity.

MOSCATO D'ASTI

- 16 2020 - Richard Hemming MW, Jancis Robinson, May 2021
What makes it so good? There are three unique qualities that we should cherish. Firstly, it really does smell and taste of grapes, unlike almost all other wines, and grapes taste delicious. Secondly, it has only 5.5% alcohol, which makes it drinkable with abandon. (Indeed, those first two points are closely related, since the interrupted fermentation process that keeps the alcohol low also retains those pure, unconverted grape flavours.) Thirdly, it is frizzante, which is not only an excellent word, but indicates a lightly sparkling style that I can't think of in any other wine.
The result is a foaming glass of sheer, unadulterated joy that I challenge anyone to drink without a smile.
- 90+ 2019 - Monica Lerner, The Wine Advocate, Lockdown Wines, Jul 2020
This pretty semi-sparkling Moscato d'Asti produces a thick foam of bubbles as it pours into the glass and boasts a luminous pale gold color. The G.D. Vajra 2019 Moscato d'Asti sees fruit sourced from the Vigneti di Moncucco in Santo Stefano Belbo and the Riforno vineyard in the nearby area of Mango. Both sites are at the historic heart of the Moscato d'Asti production zone. This pretty wine delivers a wide range of floral and tropical fruit aromas with fragrant peach and star jasmine. There are delicate background notes of crushed stone or oyster shell.

N.S. DELLA NEVE

VINO SPUMANTE DI QUALITA'

- 93 NV - Kerin O'Keefe, kerinokeefe.com, Feb 2024
A fifty-fifty blend of Nebbiolo and Pinot Nero, the radiant N.S della Neve Metodo Classico is compelling and loaded with flavor and finesse. It opens heady aromas of rose, pomegranate, Alpine herb and saline. Vibrant and loaded with finesse, the linear, savory palate features juicy strawberry blood orange, star anise and saline. An elegant perlage and bright acidity keep it energized and balanced.
- 91 NV- Eric Guido, Vinous, Rosé New Releases, May 2024
Vajra's NV Extra Brut Rosé N.S. Della Neve is incredibly characterful, sizzling out of the glass with leather, mesquite smoke, blackberry and white pepper. A blend of 50% Nebbiolo and 50% Pinot Noir, the structure of the former comes through loud and clear through bright acids and firm, powdery tannins. Sour berry fruit and mentholated herbs meet with salty stoniness in the mouth, elevated by a lively, fine mousse. It's not the most finessed sparkling wine you'll taste, but it's certainly charming.
- 91 NV- Othmar Kiem, Simon Staffler, Rosé Trophy Italia 2024, Falstaff , May 2024
Bright salmon red with a copper hue. Delicate, elegant bouquet with notes of orange zest, acacia honey and a slightly nutty touch. Very fresh on the palate, with beautiful persistence, very pleasant and smooth, right into the salty finish.
- 90 NV - Stephanie Johnson, Wine&Spirits, Mar 2024
This wine combines the fruitiness of pinot noir with nebbiolo's savory edge in a crisp and refreshing rosé sparkler. Light tannins frame flavors of summer strawberry and cranberry with just a hint of toasted nuts.
- 91 NV - Eric Guido, Vinous, Rosé New Releases, May 2022
The NV, Extra Brut Rosé Metodo Classico N.S. delle Neve is captivating with a beguiling bouquet that leads with sweet tobacco, then transforms to show ripe peaches, chamomile and hints of raw almond. It's silky-smooth with a fine bead of bubbles, as tension quickly mounts through a wave of saline-tinged acids and minerals that cut through with laser-like intensity. A salty flourish defines the finale, while the palate is left watering for more. This is intense on its own, but it would be dreamy with any number of rich, fatty or fried foods.

ROSA BELLA VINO ROSATO

92 2023 - Eric Guido, Vinous, Rosé New Releases, May 2024

The 2023 Rosato Rosabella is gorgeous, sweetly cherry-fruited and inviting. Nebbiolo lends considerable structure to this Rosé, wrapping blood orange and rose petal tones in a fine web of powdery tannins. Tart, lemony acidity provides a bracing structure, but the mouthfeel remains so round and harmonious. Vajra always represents solid value in Piemonte, and this is certainly no different.

92 2023 - Othmar Kiem, Simon Staffler, Rosé Trophy Italia 2024, Falstaff, May 2024

Bright peach pink. Fresh apricots on the nose, crisp cherries, some citrus fruit, white pepper on the finish. Taut on the palate, with good acidity, subtle tannins, cool, fresh, drinks very well.

91 2022 - Eric Guido, Vinous, A Kaleidoscope of Colors: New Rosé Releases, May 2023

The 2022 Rosato Rosabella captivates with its purity and refinement, blending young peaches with sweet mint and lemon oil to form its enticing bouquet. Soft and giving, it balances exotic spice with crisp orchard fruits and citrus while cleaning up beautifully through the close. Traces of green apples and minerals linger and keep me looking back to the glass for more. The Rosabella is a blend Nebbiolo, Barbera and Dolcetto.

90 2021 - Eric Guido, Vinous, 2022 Rosé – New Releases, May 2022

The 2021 Rosato Rosabella is so understated yet pretty, capturing the eye with its pale pink color, and then the senses with nuances of rose, strawberries and a dusting of spice. It's soothingly soft, with a pleasant inner sweetness offset by vibrant acidity and citrus-tinged orchard fruits. This leaves the palate completely refreshed, as a salty flourish punctuates the experience quite nicely.
